Curriculum Vitae

Lynda Bourne DPM, PMP, FAIM is a senior management consultant, trainer and an award winning project manager with 20 years professional industry experience. She is the CEO and Managing Director of Stakeholder Management Pty Ltd and Director of Professional Services with Mosaic Project Services Pty Ltd focussing on the delivery of OPM3, stakeholder management and other project related consultancy, mentoring and training for clients world-wide including PgMP, PMP and CAPM accreditation courses.

Lynda is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management and was the inaugural (2003) winner of PMI Australia's 'Project Manager of the Year' award. She has also been included in PMI's inaugural list of '25 Influential Women in Project Management' (2006) and has been an entrant in the 'Who's Who of Australian Women' since 2007.

Lynda is a recognised international author, seminar leader and speaker on the topic of stakeholder management and the 'Stakeholder Circle' visualisation tool. She has presented at conferences and seminars in Europe, Russia, Asia, New Zealand and Australia to audiences of project managers in the IT, construction, defence and mining industries and has been key speaker at meetings and workshops conducted by PMI as well as Project Management communities of practice within organisations in the finance and utilities sector.

For her Doctoral thesis, Lynda investigated the dynamics of the interaction between project teams and their key stakeholders. Her book Stakeholder Relationship Management: A Maturity Model for Organisational Implementation (Gower, 2009) extended this groundbreaking research to define the SRMM® model for stakeholder relationship management maturity.

Lynda was an Adjunct Professor at University of Maryland University College (UMUC) from 2007 to 2009. UMUC is an accredited institution focusing on the unique educational and professional development needs of adult students, delivering most of its courses via e-learning. Dr. Bourne was a tutor for the on-line, post graduate, project management courses.

Lynda was part of the testing team working on PMI's initial OPM3 development project; and was a sub-team leader for the OPM3 2008 update project. She was Chair of the PMI/DNV OPM3 ProductSuite Examination Committee from 2006 to 2008 and was a member of the PMI OPM3 Certification Committee from 2008 to 2009.

Lynda has extensive experience as a Senior Project Manager specialising in delivery of IT and other business-related projects within the telecommunications sector. She has worked as a Senior IT Project Management Consultant with various Telcos in Australia and South East Asia including senior roles with Optus and Telstra. Other industry-related roles include strategic planning, Account Management within the IT industry, Business Process Re-engineering (BPR) and business development.

Lynda's career has combined practical project experience with business management roles and academic research to deliver successful projects that meet stakeholders' expectations. Highlights of Lynda's career have included:

- author: Stakeholder Relationship Management: A Maturity Model for Organisational Implementation (Gower, 2009)
- leading the development of the Stakeholder Circle® methodology and tool, initially for Mosaic and then as CEO of Stakeholder Management Pty Ltd;
- being selected as a PMI SeminarsWorld® presenter for 2007 and 2008;
- redeveloping Mosaic's PMP and CAPM training resources;
- consulting to PMI and DNV on the development of OPM3 and the OPM3 ProductSuite, including chairing the ProductSuite Examination Committee for DNV / PMI from 2006 to 2008 and then moving onto the PMI OPM3 Certification Committee;
- the successful implementation of project management support solutions integrating SAP with Primavera;
- the development of innovative Program Offices to provide support services for planning, reporting and other technical support services to IT development groups;
- managing the development and implementation of Privacy and Disability Compliance programs in corporations;

- leading process improvement initiatives to reduce systems development lifecycle through introduction of analytical processes to identify and take corrective action on processes within the SDLC,
- leading RFT development and response teams in Australia and South-East Asia.

As the Project Director leading outsourced and virtual projects with team members from many organisations and many cultures, Lynda successfully built and motivated high-performing teams. As Program Manager, IT Project Management Group she developed programs for mentoring and coaching project managers, and introduced an innovative program of apprenticeships to assist engineers and technical specialists make the transition to project management.

She has contributed to books and published numerous papers on project relationship management, developing project managers, mentoring coaching and apprenticeship programs, and the Stakeholder Circle® (a comprehensive methodology for identifying key stakeholders and maintaining their support). The papers have been published in international project management and business journals in the USA, Europe, India and Australia [see Attachment 1 for a listing of major papers].

Achievements

Over twenty years experience in the Project Management and Information Technology Industries, primarily in telecommunications-related projects, Other roles include training, strategic planning, Account Management within the IT industry, Business Process Re-engineering (BPR) and business development.
